New AQF website

The new look AQF website went 'live' on Wednesday August 5, 2009.

The new website features an interactive map of Australia that can be used to search the AQF Register of Recognised Education Institutions and Authorised Accreditation Authorities in Australia, clear links to current AQF projects and publications, a search facility and sections for specific audiences such as students, employers and educational providers.

Please note: As the new website is differently organised than the old website, you will need to change any links that you have on your website to specific pages in our old website (such as the previous Handbook address: <http://www.aqf.edu.au/implement.htm>). We suggest you change all links to our home page address, www.aqf.edu.au

We look forward to your feedback and any comments about content, layout or usability.
